Give Names of Ancestors from whom eligibility is derived.

The services of my ancestors in assisting in pioneering Utah were as follows:

My father William Davis came directly to the Hail-stone Ranch now called Elkhorn in this County where he lived practically all his life after coming to Utah. And acted as presiding Elder in that District for a number of years. He was a veteran of the Blackhawk Indian War and did service at that time. The family had to move to Heber for protection at that time. He took up a land claim near the Hailstone Ranch and was quite successful as a farmer and stock raiser and built him a comfortable home on the Ranch. Later he bought a nice home in Heber where he died. His first wife having died on the plains he married Mary Goddard Collins About April 10th 1865. By whom he raised a family of six children. They started from the Hailstone Ranch to walk to Salt Lake City to get married in the Endowment House but were overtaken by teams on the way to Conference & invited to ride. They came back & settled down on the ranch where they entertained many of the Heber people going & coming from Salt Lake City for many years. William Davis was noted for his kindhearted hospitality to all comers. Mary Goddard Collins my Stepmother came to Utah the same year my father did. Her husband John Collins died on the way coming to Utah near Fort Bridger. She made my father an excellent wife & was very kind to myself & brother who had been left without a mother's care

I declare upon honor, that if admitted to membership in this Society, I will endeavor to promote the purposes of this institution and observe the Constitution and By-Laws and endeavor to promote harmony and union in this Society.
